Refund Policy

If my child does not come to Canada or decides not to attend or decides to leave Campbell River International Student Program early, the following terms will apply:

- The application fee is non-refundable in all circumstances.
- Full refund of tuition, homestay, and program fees less a $500 administration fee, if the visiting student's authorization is not approved by the Canadian Government and supporting documentation of this rejection is supplied (student must provide the letter of rejection). The application fee will not be refunded.
- Only half (50%) of the tuition fee will be refunded if the student withdraws prior to commencement of the program or within the first 30 days of the program. An administration fee of $500 will be deducted from unused homestay fees. The application, homestay placement and program fees will not be refunded.
- No tuition refund will be granted for any reason if the student withdraws after 30 days of participation in the program. An administration fee of $500 will be deducted from unused homestay fees. The application, homestay placement and program fees will not be refunded.
- No tuition refund will be granted if the student is found to be in violation of the Student Participation and Code of Conduct Agreements and directed to leave the program or dismissed from the program. An administration fee of $500 will be deducted from unused homestay fees. The application, homestay placement and program fees will not be refunded.
- If a student decides to leave early two weeks' notice in writing must be given before the student's departure. An administration fee of $500 will be deducted from unused Homestay fees.
- If unforeseen circumstances (natural disaster, weather, labour dispute, etc.) force the closure of schools for an extended period, no refund of tuition fees will be paid by the program.
- If the student's education and/or mental health and/or behavioural needs are greater than disclosed on the application, the District reserves the right to charge for extra support if such support is available. Any inaccuracy in the application submission is grounds for the School District to terminate the agreement and send the student home without refund at the parent's own expense. Please review the International Student Agreement upon application to understand all the terms and policies.

No refund will be provided if a student is dismissed from the program because of a violation of this Agreement.
